

Ownership of broadcast facilities and frequencies should always be tightly regulated and limited. The public broadcast frequencies are just that, public, and not something for business to monopolize.